SUIT AGAINST A CLERGYMAN BY HIS WIFE. -The wife of the Rev. Alvah Wiswall, the assistant minister of St. John's Chapel, in New A sek city, has brought a suit against her hushand in the Court of Common Pleas to recover here more gages for $2,000 each, which she alleges to be her property, and to have been wrongfully appropriated by him. In her complaint in this case, and in a petition for relief decreased by her in June to the vestry of Trinity Church, Mrs. Wiswall asserts that when she was married to her present husband he was worth $70,000 in her own right, and her he was without means; that her husband as wrongfully converted her property and oth-

ise ill-used her, and that she and her child lived apart from him for more than a year a state of extreme powerty. It is understood At Mr. Wiswall says his wife is insane. The York Express states that the rector and by of the Church have investigated the acons against Mr. Wiswall, and are not satis-..... they have any foundation.

THE EXECUTIVE MANSION. - The alterations and embelishments at the Executive Mansion which have been in active progress during the absence of the President at the seaside, have done much toward improving both its exterior and interior. The President and his family are not now expected to return much if any before the first part of the next month. By the time of their arrival it is calculated that the improvements will all have been finished. The building will be then more comfortable than it has been for some years past, and will probably answer its present purpose until the erection of the new babitation for the Executive. - Bal-
